In the event this cooperative is not provided with such written notice from an authorized representa-~~tive~~ of such deceased member's estate, this cooperative may deem such deceased member to be an inactive member.

Section 98. (Termination or Withdrawal of Membership) If a member fails to comply with the requirements of these Bylaws or the terms of the membership agreement, or indicates in writing the intent to withdraw from this cooperative, this cooperative through its Board of Directors - may elect to terminate the membership, either by:

(a) purchasing the capital stock of such member by tendering to him, her or it ~~the member~~ the par value thereof, or the book value thereof if less than the par value, together with any dividend or patronage refund due or unpaid, less any indebtedness due this cooperative;

(b) or recalling the capital stock of such member and issuing to him, her or it ~~the member~~ non-voting capital stock in an amount to be ascertained as specified above.

Section 109. (Restrictions on Transfer) Every member agrees that the capital stock can only be transferred to this cooperative upon prior written approval by the Board of Directors. The stock of this cooperative is not transferable in any other event.

Section 110. (Member Information) This cooperative's policy is to take commercially reasonable measures to protect against the disclosure of member names and contact information to third parties not affiliated with the cooperative, subject to compulsory disclosure as required by law, court order, administrative proceeding or other governmental action.

ARTICLE III. DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section I. (Number of Directors and Term) The Board of Directors shall be composed of nine (9) Directors, elected by membership ballot at the time of the annual meeting of this cooperative. The Board of Directors may increase the number of Directors to eleven (11) Directors upon a majority vote of the Board of Directors approving such increase. Every Director shall be a member in good standing of this cooperative. The normal term of service for Directors shall be three (3) years. Consecutive years of service as a Board member shall be limited to six (6) years, with such member being eligible to serve again following a break in service of at least one (1) year. Employees, consultants, contractors and other paid agents of this cooperative are ineligible to become Board members and shall remain ineligible for a period of one year following termination of the paid relationship with this cooperative. Any Director who changes categories by becoming a paid agent must resign from the Board.

Section 2. (Vacancies and Alternates) Any vacancy in the Board of Directors, except as may be caused by removal by the stockholders, shall be filled until the next annual meeting by the remainder of the Board of Directors at their discretion. If the number of directors falls below six (6), a special meeting will be held to fill the vacancies.

Section 3. (Election of Officers) The Board of Directors shall meet within forty-five (45) days after the first election and after each annual election, and shall elect by ballot by and from their number a ~~president~~President, ~~vice~~Vice-presidentPresident, ~~secretary~~Secretary, and ~~treasurer~~Treasurer. Directors and officers shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified.

Section 4. (Compensation) The compensation, if any, of the Board of Directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors of this cooperative at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose. Any such resolutions regarding compensation that are adopted by the Board of Directors shall be announced to the members of this cooperative at the next regular or special meeting of the members. Directors shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in attending board meetings or any other business of this cooperative when such expense accounts have been approved by at least a majority vote of the directors. Compensation of the officers shall be set by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. (Removal by Members for Cause) Any director of this cooperative may be removed from office for cause related to the duties of the position of director, at any annual or special meeting called for the purpose, at which a quorum of the members shall be present, by vote of the majority of the members present. The removal of a director shall not be considered at a special meeting unless that fact has been stated in the notice of the meeting. No director shall be removed from office at either an annual or special meeting unless the director is informed of the meeting at which the matter is to be considered at least twenty-one (21) days before such meeting. Such notice shall be by registered mail addressed to the director at that individual's last known address, and the director shall be entitled to be heard at such meeting, except a director may be removed at an annual meeting for failure to attend the required number of Board meetings without notice. In case of removal under this section, the members may choose to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term of such director, and such election may be held at the same meeting at which the director was removed from office. Alternatively, the remaining directors may fill the position as provided in Section 2 hereof. Failure of a director to attend three (3) consecutive directors' meetings, or 33 1/3 percent of the directors' meeting, except for absences excused by a majority of the directors, during a six-month period just preceding, shall automatically vacate the office of said director and the remaining directors shall thereupon fill said vacancy as provided in Section 2 hereof.

Section 6. (Removal by Directors for Cause) Any director of this cooperative may be removed from office for cause related to the duties of the position of director, at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors, by a majority vote of all of the remaining directors. No director shall be removed from office under this section unless such director has been informed of the meeting at which the matter is to be considered at least twenty-one (21) days before such meeting. Such notice shall be by registered mail addressed to the director at that individual's last known address, and the director shall be entitled to be heard at such meeting, except a director may be removed without notice at a meeting of the Board of Directors for failure to attend the required number of Board meetings. In case of removal under this section, the remaining directors may fill the position as provided in Section 2 hereof.

ARTICLE IV. DUTIES AND POWERS OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. (Management of Business) The Board of Directors shall govern the business and the affairs of this cooperative and make all necessary rules and regulations not inconsistent with law or with these Bylaws, for the management of the business and the guidance of the officers, employees, and agents of this cooperative.

Section 2. (Bonds of Employees) The Board of Directors may require the ~~general-~~General Manager and any other officers, employees and agents charged by this cooperative with responsibility for the custody of any of its funds or property to provide a fidelity bond in such sum as the Board of Directors determines. ## ARTICLE VI. CAPITAL STOCK

Section 1. The amount of authorized capital stock of this cooperative shall be one million three hundred thousand (1,300,000) shares and shall be divided into three classes. Class A stock shall consist of one hundred thousand (100,000) shares of voting stock with a par value of ninety dollars ($90.00) per share. Class B stock shall consist of one million one hundred thousand (1,100,000) shares of non-voting stock with a par value of ten dollars ($10.00) per share. Class C stock shall consist of one hundred thousand (100,000) shares of non-voting stock with a par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per share.

Section 2. (Stock Transferred) Capital stock shall be transferable only in accordance with Article II, Section 9 hereof.

ARTICLE VII. REVOLVING FUND AND RECORDS

Section 1. (Revolving Fund) In order to further the cooperative character of this cooperative and provide a means whereby its current and active patrons can finance it, this cooperative is authorized to issue Class B stock and Class C stock, equity reserve or capital interest certificates, or any other media as determined by the Board of Directors and as permitted by the laws under which this cooperative is organized. Funds arising from the issue of such stock or certificates or other media may be used to create a revolving fund for the purpose of amassing an amount of working capital to meet this cooperative's financing needs, and capital improvements, expansion, and/or other needs as the Board of Directors may from time to time deem necessary. Such funds, or funds derived by this cooperative from any other sources, may be devoted to retiring Class B stock or Class C stock, liquidating equity reserves or capital interest certificates or certificates of interest, or any other certificates of indebtedness, or any other media previously issued to evidence patronage refunds if so directed by the Board of Directors. If this cooperative determines that funds are available for that purpose, all or any Class B stock and/or Class C stock, certificates of indebtedness or interest, or any other media, may be retired in full or on a pro-rata basis. The Board of Directors may retire all or part of each class of stock as it so determines thus creating a preference for one class of stock over the other in accordance with these Bylaws, subject only to the liquidation and dissolution preferences set forth in the Articles. The two methods of retiring stock that the Board may use, either for one class of stock or both, are (1) to retire the oldest outstanding stock in the order of issuance by years, in which case all of the stock issued in a single year shall, as nearly as practicable, be retired at the same time; or (2) on the basis of a percentage of all of the outstanding stock, in which case the same percentage of the stock of said class held by each person shall be retired at the same time. The Board may, in its discretion, choose one method for one class of stock and the other method for the other class of stock. However, only one method may be used for each class of stock.

Section 2. (Books and Records) The books and records of this cooperative shall be kept on a fiscal year basis, and in such a manner that the patronage refunds of each patron of this cooperative may be ascertained at any time. Whenever this cooperative determines that its capital and reserves are in excess of the amount reasonably necessary for its operations on a sound financial basis, such excess, or so much thereof as shall be deemed proper by this cooperative, may be applied to retiring the outstanding capital and reserve contributions of members.

Section 3. (Dissolution) Upon dissolution or liquidation of this cooperative, the debts and liabilities of this cooperative shall first be paid according to their respective priorities. When those debts and liabilities are satisfied, members shall then be paid the par value of their shares and payment shall be made in the order of preference as stated in the Articles of Incorporation. The remainder of the property, if any, shall be distributed among the members and stockholders in accordance with their interests in the reserves and surplus as shown on the records of this cooperative.

ARTICLE VIII. PATRONAGE DIVIDENDS, RESERVE FUNDS

Section 1. (Annual Net Income)

(a) Gross Receipts.— Gross receipts of this cooperative from all business done with members and nonmembers shall be all proceeds from the sale of goods and services to members and nonmembers, all sums received (including patronage dividends received) which reduce costs and expenses incurred in connection with these activities, and all nonpatronage income.

(b) Deductions from Gross Receipts. This cooperative shall reduce from "gross receipts" all expenses incurred in generating the "gross receipts" including, but not limited to, marketing expenses, costs of goods or services sold, taxes, depreciation, reserves for doubtful accounts, and all other necessary expenses.

(c) Total Annual Net Earnings. The amount remaining after reducing the "gross receipts" by the deductions contained in Section 1 (b) of this Article shall constitute the annual net earnings of this cooperative.

Section 2. (Member Patronage Income)

(a) Member Patronage. Total annual net earnings of this cooperative shall be divided into (1) annual net earnings from member patronage and (2) annual net earnings from nonmember patronage and nonpatronage sources. Annual net earnings from member patronage shall be determined by taking the percentage of gross receipts attributable to business done with or for members (including patronage dividends, etc.) and multiplying that percentage to total annual net earnings. The amount resulting shall be annual net earnings from member patronage, and shall be distributed to the member-patrons of this cooperative in proportion to the amount of business done by them with this cooperative, subject only to the deductions there from and the exceptions provided in Section 3 and 4 of this article.

(b) Nonmember Patronage and Nonpatronage Income. The difference between total annual net earnings and net earnings from member patronage shall be annual net earnings from nonmember patronage and nonpatronage sources.

Section 3. (Educational Reserve) The Board of Directors may set aside a sum not to exceed five percent (5%) of the total annual net earnings as an educational fund which shall be used for the purpose of promoting and encouraging cooperative associations.

Section 4. (Capital Reserve)

(a) The Board of Directors shall annually set aside as a capital reserve all annual net earnings from nonmember patronage and nonpatronage sources less any deductions for the educational reserve. In addition, the Board of Directors may also place into such a capital reserve fund all annual net earnings from member patronage attributable to member patrons who are unidentified, all annual net earnings from member patronages attributable to member-patrons who do not consent to take into account patronage dividends from this cooperative in the manner provided in 26 U.S.C. Section 1385; and all annual net earnings from member patronage attributable to member-patrons who so consent, but who have not made at least One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) in purchases in the fiscal year.— Following the adoption of these Bylaws, the amounts so set aside shall not be allocated to the member-patrons of this cooperative and shall be kept in the general reserve.

(b) Amounts which have been placed in any Reserve prior to the effective date of this amendment, and which have been allocated, shall remain allocated on the books of this cooperative unless and until retired or disbursed.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Section to the contrary, the Board of Directors may, by resolution duly adopted prior to the beginning of the fiscal year to which such savings are attributable, determine to set aside such other reasonable amount as a capital reserve but not more than fifty percent (50%) of the total annual net earnings.

Section 5. (Patronage Dividend Distribution)

(a) The annual net earnings from member patronage, less any deductions therefrom or exceptions thereto as determined by Section 3 or 4 of this Article, shall be distributed annually to the member-patrons of this cooperative who consent to take into account patronage distributions from this cooperative in the manner provided in 26 U.S.C. 1385, on the basis of their respective patronage percentage in accordance with these Bylaws, and said member-patrons shall be notified thereof.

(b) Patronage dividends shall be distributed in cash or in equity (usually in the form of Class B stock) or by any combination thereof designated by the Board of Directors. Such equity may be paid or redeemed in whole or in part at such time, in such manner, and in such order as shall be determined by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Board of Directors shall not be required to but may by resolution establish policies and programs for the payment of or redemption of such equities. No transfer or assignment of such equity shall be binding upon this cooperative without its consent.

Section 6. (Allocation of Losses) If this cooperative sustains a loss in annual net earnings, the Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to allocate such loss to the member-patrons for such year or years on a patronage basis and apply the same against the equity credits of said member-patrons, or to carry forward such loss.

ARTICLE IX. MEMBER TAX CONSENT

Each member of this cooperative shall, by becoming a member, consent that the amount of any distributions with respect to such member's patronage occurring in any fiscal year which are made in written notices of allocation (as defined by 26 U.S.C. 1388, the Internal Revenue Code) and which are received by such member from this cooperative, will be included in such member's income in the manner provided in 26 U.S.C. 1385 in the taxable year in which such written notices of allocation are received. It is the intent of this Bylaw to provide a consent binding on all members who retain or obtain membership in this cooperative after the adoption of this Bylaw and receipt of a written notification and copy of this Bylaw, for the purpose of making such distributions "qualified written notices of allocation" within the meaning of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE X. LIMITED LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section- 1. -(Indemnification) This cooperative shall indemnify each person who is or has been a director, officer, or employee of this cooperative, and each person who is serving or who has served at the request of this cooperative as a director, officer, or employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by ~~him or her~~said person to the fullest extent of ~~his or her~~the person's right to indemnity under current Minnesota Corporation Law.

Section 2. (Limited Liability) A director is not personally liable to this cooperative or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty except in the following circumstances: a) for a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to this cooperative or its members; b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; c) for a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; or d) for an act or omission occurring prior to the date these amended articles of incorporation became effective.

ARTICLE XI. SUNDRY PROVISIONS

Section 1. (Fiscal Year) The fiscal year of this cooperative shall begin on the first day of July and close on the last day of June of the year.

Section 2. (Amendments) These Bylaws may be amended, repealed or altered, in whole or in part, as provided by law, by a majority vote of the members voting in person, online, or by mail at any annual meeting of the members or at any special meeting of the members when such action has been duly announced in the call of the special meeting.
