I and Love and You pet food

This Colorado-based pet food maker is committed to sustainability. Take their packaging, for example: Made with TerraCycle material, you can collect and ship it back to the company free of charge. TerraCycle prides itself on 100% recyclability, meaning no part of your pet food packaging ends up in a landfill.

Once Upon a Farm - new items

Once Upon a Farm values transparency and sustainability, relying on third-party verification to ensure clean, non-toxic food. Choose from crunchy puffs featuring fun, whole food ingredients like mango, apple, and carrot. The coconut mixed berry and coconut mango “ba-nilla” melts are perfect for younger eaters. And older snackers will love chomping on the apple, sweet potato, and spinach tractor wheels.

$3.99-5.99

Simpli regenerative organic food

Dried pantry staples for the eco-conscious, this brand of beans and grains is sourced directly. This allows Simpli to ensure their food is coming from farmers who care as much about the planet as they do.
